BRIGHTLY BEAMS THE SUMMER SKY.

O, brightly beams the summer sky,
And rarely blooms the clover;
But the little pond will soon be dry—
The summer soon be over!

O, light and soft the west wind blows,
The flower-bells gently ringing;
But blight will fall upon the rose,
Where now the bee is swinging!

A smile is on the silver stream—
A blush is on the flowers;
But the cloud that wears a golden gleam
Will waste itself in showers!

O, little hearts with gladness rife,
Among the wavy grasses!—
A deeper shade will fold your life
Than o'er the meadow passes!

O, maiden lips! O, lips of bloom!
Unburdened save by singing!
Where kisses now are clinging!

O, hope is sweet! O, youth is near!
And love is sweeter, nearer!
O, life is sweet, and life is dear,
But death is often dearer!

O, shield the little hearts from wrong,
While childhood's laugh is ringing!
And kiss the lips that sing the song,
Before they cease their singing!

Before those brows are older!
O, touch with love the lips of truth,
Before they cease their singing!

For the little pool will soon be dry—
The summer soon be over;
Though brightly beams the summer sky,
And rarely blooms the clover!

HOW TO MAKE HOME HAPPY.

Do not jest with your wife upon a subject in which there is danger of wounding her feelings. Remember that she treasures every word your utter, though you never think of it again. Do not speak of some virtue in another man's wife, to remind your own of fault. Do not reproach your wife with personal defects; if she has sensibility, you inflict a wound difficult to head. Do not treat your wife with inattention in company. Do not upbraid her in the presence of a third person, nor entertain her with praising the beauty and accomplishments of other women. If you would have a pleasant home and a cheerful wife, pass your evening under your own roof. Do not be stern and silent in your own house, and remember to be sociable elsewhere. Remember that your wife has as much need of recreation as yourself, and devote a portion at least of your leisure hours to such society and amusements as she may join. By so doing you will secure her smiles and increase her affection. Do not, by being too exact in pecuniary matters, make your wife feel her dependence upon your bounty. It tends to lessen her dignity of character, and does not increase her esteem for you, if she is a sensible woman, she should be acquainted with your business and know your income, that she may regulate her household expenses accordingly. Do not withhold this knowledge, in order to cover your own extravigance. Women have a keen perception—be sure she will discover your selfishness—and though no word is spoken, from that moment, her respect is lessened, and her confidence diminished, pride wounded, and a thousand, perhaps, unjust suspicions created. From that moment is your domestic comfort on the wane. There can be no oneness, where there is no full confidence. —Woman's Thoughts About Woman.

ASKING GOD'S FORGIVENESS.

Rev. Samuel Kilpin, a Baptist, gives the following account of his son:

"On one occasion when he had offended me, I deemed it right to manifest displeasure; and when he asked a question about the business of the day, I was short and reserved in my answer to him. An hour or more elapsed. The time had nearly arrived when he was to repeat his lessons. He came into my study, and said: "Papa, I cannot learn my lessons except you are reconciled; I am sorry I have offended you; I hope you will forgive me; I think I shall never offend you again."

I replied, "All I want is to make you sensible to your fault; when you acknowledge it, you know I am easily reconciled with you."

"Then papa," said he, "give me the token of reconciliation, and seal it with a kiss."—The hand was given, and the seal most heartily exchanged on each side.

"Now," exclaimed the dear boy, "I will learn Greek and Latin with anybody;" and was hastening to his study.

"Stop, Stop," I called after him; "have you not a Heavenly Father? If what you have done has been evil, He is displeased, and you must apply to him for forgiveness."

With tears starting in his eyes, he said: "Papa, I went to him first; I knew that except he was reconciled I could do nothing." As the tears fast rolled down his cheek, he added; "I hope he has forgiven me; and now I am happy!" I have never had occasion to speak to him again in tones of disapprobation.

AN ELEGANT WOMAN.—There is a person whose harmonious voice gives to her conversation a charm found equally in her manners. She knows how to speak and how to keep silent; how delicately to engage herself with you, and use only proper subjects of conversation. Her words are happily chosen; her language is pure; her raillery, caresses; and her criticism does not wound. Far from contradicting with ignorant assurance of a fool, she seems to seek in your company good sense or truth. She indulges in dissertations as little as she does in disputes; she delights to lead a discussion which she stops when she pleases.

Of an equable temper, her hair is effable and gay. Her politeness has nothing forced in it; her welcome is not servile; she reduces respect to nothing more than a delicate shade; she never tires you, and leaves her satisfied with her and yourself.

Attracted to her sphere by an inexplicable power, you find her wit and grace impressed upon the things with which she surrounds herself; everything there pleases the sight, and while there, you seem to breath the fresh air of the country.

In intimacy this person seduces by a tone of fresh simplicity. She is natural. She never makes an effort at luxury—at display. Her sentences are simply rendered because they are true. She is frank, without offending any one's self love. She accepts men as God has made them, pardoning their faults and ridiculous qualities; comprehending all ages, and vexing herself about nothing, she has enough to forsee everything. She obliges rather than consoles; she is tender and gay; therefore you will love her irresistibly. You will take her for a type, and vow to worship her.

WHISTLING.—Next to laughing, whistling is one of the most philosophical things in which a fellow of good spirits can indulge. Whistling is a popular prescription for keeping up the courage—it might better be said good spirits. Some genial philosopher has well said on this subject. "Whistling is a great institution. It oils the wheels of care, supplies the place of sunshine. A man who whistles has a good heart under his shirt-front. Such a man not only works more willingly, but he works more constantly. A whistling cobler will earn as much money again as a cordwainer who gives way to low spirits and indigestion. Mean or avaricious men never whistle. The man who attacks whistling throws a stone at the head of hilarity, and if he could, would rob June of its roses—and August of its meadow larks."

WHAT A GOOD NEWSPAPER MAY DO.—Show us an intelligent family of boys and girls, and we will show you a family where newspapers and periodicals are plenty. Nobody who has been without these silent private tutors can know their educating powers for good or evil. Have you ever thought of the innumerable topics of discussion which they suggest at the breakfast table; the important public measures with which, thus early, our children become acquainted; great philanthropic questions of the day, to which unconsciously their attention is awakened and the general spirit of intelligence which is envoked by these quiet visitors? Anything that makes home pleasant, cheerful and chatty, thins the haunts of vice, and the thousand and one avenues of temptation, should certainly be regarded, when we consider its influence on the minds of the young, as a great moral and social light. —Emerson.

UNKINDNESS.—The moment a friend or even a mere acquaintance is dead, how surely there starts up before us each instance of unkindness of which we have been guilty towards him. In fact, many an act or word which, while he was in life did not seem to us to be unkind at all, now "bites back" as if it had been a serpent, and shows us what it really was. Alas! twas thus we caused him to suffer who now is dust, and yet then we did not pity nor reproach ourselves. There is always a bitterness beyond that of death in the dying of a fellow-creature to whom we have been unjust or unkind.

GOOD deeds are very fruitful. Out of one good action of ours, God produceth a thousand, the harvest whereof is perpetual. If good deeds were utterly barren and incommodious, I would seek after them for the consciousness of their own goodness. How much more shall I now be encouraged to perform them, that they are so profitable both to myself and others!—Bishop Hall.

PLATO being told that he had many enemies who spoke ill of him said: "It is no matter; I will live so that none shall believe them."

Hearing that an intimate friend of his had spoken distractingly of him, he said: I am sure he would not do it if he had not some reason for it."

MEN are like bugles; the more brass they contain the more noise they make, and the farther you can hear them. Ladies are like violets; the more modest, and retiring they appear the better we like them.

A GIRL in Springfied, Mass., applied to her teacher for leave to be absent half a day, on the plea that they had company at home. The teacher referred her to the printed list of reasons that the School Committee think sufficient to justify absence, and asked her if her case came under any of them. She naively replied that it might come under the head of "Domestic affliction."

A PRACTICAL JOKE.

On the shores of Canandaigua Lake, New York, there is a lunatic asylum kept by Dr. Cook, who also receives many inebriates.—The Sentinel of Freedom tells the following as having occurred at the asylum:

One morning, three years since, Cook entered the breakfast-room, where some convalescents from insanity and a number of reforming inebriates were chatting coolly over their eggs and coffee, and told them to be in readiness for visitors, as a "Teacher's Institute" would be up from the town during the morning to study the treatment of the insane. As the doctor left the room, an inebriate, whom we will call Smith, said—

"Now, Cook will come in here with a long string of pedagogues and schoolm'ams behind him, and tell them that we are perfectly harmless, and that they will not see any dangerous patients. I'll show him to the contrary."

Smith had been in the service of the North-west Fur Company, and when the doctor came in and made the expected assurance of safety, Smith, who was watching from a crevice in his door, dashed out of his room clad in complete Indian costume, face painted, hair flying and tomahawk in hand, giving a tremendous war whoop as he plunged at the head man of the "Institute." The scene was indescrible. The teachers went flying out of the doors and windows, Smith chasing them through the grounds, the poor doctor half mad at the annoyance and half killed with laughter, and the breakfast-table party, who were in the secret, all in convulsions of delight. Explanation was impossible. The doctor bore his sorrows like a man; the "Institute" passed resolutions of censure; and the jolly Smith rejoiced in the success of his practical joke, calling it the best spree of his lifetime. But we hope nobody will go to an inebriate asylum for the fun of it.

THEATRICAL.—During Mr. Kean's performance of Richard III, some years ago, at the Park Theatre, New York, a green Vermonter, who was a stranger to the mimic art, never having been at the theatre before, took a seat in the pit, pretty near the orchestra, and was observed to watch the performance with absorbing interest. He neither joined in the applause bestowed on the performers, nor in the hisses lavished on the "supes," but silently and admiringly looked on at the play. He heard the drums beat to arms at Bosworth field—heard Richard's so

The Star & Sentinel.

Wednesday, July 10, 1867.

For Judge of the Supreme Court,
HON. HENRY W. WILLIAMS,
OF ALLEGHENY COUNTY.

TO OUR PATRONS.

We have had little or nothing to say about ourselves, since the change in the management of the paper—partly because we preferred to have the improvements we may introduce from time to time speak for themselves, and partly because of the difficulties under which we have been laboring, by reason of the hampered condition of our office. We had expected long ere this to be in our new office, but the work has been unexpectedly delayed. The new building is, however, now fairly under way, and in a few days we expect to be able to move into it, when we hope to be able to move on more comfortably. In the meantime we have made such improvements in the paper, as we found practicable, and hope from time to time to make still more marked ones. It is our purpose to spare neither labor nor expense to make the "Star and Sentinel" one of the best journals in the State, and every way worthy of the generous patronage it already enjoys. We have already been at heavy expense in the erection of a new office, and the purchase of new type, paper, &c. A number of subscribers have manifested their appreciation of our efforts, by promptly pre-paying their subscriptions, and we should be pleased to acknowledge similar compliments from all our subscribers. We have to pay cash for all the type, labor, paper, and materials necessary to the issue of the paper from week to week, and the prompt payment of their subscriptions by subscribers, will enable us to meet these liabilities without embarrassment, and put it in our power to make additional improvements. Each mail subscribes can ascertain the state of his account, by examining the printed label on his paper, which indicates the date to which his subscription is paid.

We desire to express our acknowledgement to our friends in different parts of the county, who have actively interested themselves in extending the circulation of the paper, and trust they will continue their good offices. Our subscription is already larger by one half, than was ever attained by any paper in the county. A little effort upon the part of each of our present subscribers, would largely increase the list, and to that extent promote the circulation of sound political principles, and increase our faculties for publishing a profitable and acceptable paper.

DOYLESTOWN, Pa., boasts of a hebdomadal, called the "Democrat." It is edited by one DAVIS—Colonel WILLIAM HENRY DAVIS—who, to his credit be it spoken, earned his military title by honorable service in the Union army. But by instinct and education he was a Latter-Day Democrat; hence, after quitting the field, he clung to his old political associations, and, prompted by an ambition that has proved fatal to many an aspirant, was flattered into the acceptance of the Democratic nomination for Auditor General, in 1865, and badly beaten by General HARTRANFT. Whether this was the immediate cause of unsettling the serenity of DAVIS' existence, we do not undertake to assert; but certain is it that ever since then he has displayed no little ill-temper through the medium of his paper. Whatever fails to run parallel with his views is reprehensible. Ever on the alert, he discovers error and danger which others fail to discern, entitling him to a place in the category of philosophers who "Have lights when others' eyes are blind,

As pigs are said to see the wind."

"Radicals" generally are an abomination in his sight; but THADDEUS STEVENS is decidedly execrable. To W. H. D. the "great Commoner" is a frightful apparition, from whose "diabolical frame of mind," as he styles it, are to spring more evils than sprang from Pandora's box, to afflict the human race, or rather that portion of it which reside in the lately rebellious States. "To gratify the malice of a devilish old man," tragically exclaims DAVIS, "our Government has already been guilty of such acts since the war broke out as to disgrace it with the rest of the world, without resorting to CONFISCATION!" That seems the most fiendish of all the propositions yet submitted. "To despoil the South of the little property she has left," DAVIS solemnly avers is Mr. STEVENS' settled purpose and to his inventive fancy is probably presented the terrible spectacle of all the worldly effects, real, personal and mixed, of his Southern friends, being swallowed by the insatiable monster which his distempered brain has created. The deep concern which W. H. D. manifests in this respect, leaves little room to doubt that he would shed any number of sympathetic tears, and go into "sackcloth and ashes" for any requisite period, if by so doing he could avert the fate that to him appears so imminent. The case of WILLIAM HENRY himself we regard as really deplorable, and we have half a mind to importune our old friend STEVENS to desist from the wayward course he is pursuing in order to restore DAVIS to a tolerable state of existence.

But, seriously—is it not surprising with what persistency the Democratic press defame Mr. STEVENS and denounce every measure looking to a sound and permanent restoration of the Union?—If Mr. STEVENS is a "Radical," he is a radical on the side of patriotism and justice. If he is for "confiscation," it is not because he is "devilish," or governed by "revenge and malice," as is charged by the Democrat, but because he believes nothing short of such a measure will deter the people of the South from again attempting to take the life of the Nation, and to build up in its stead a Slave Oligarchy. Let them once understand that Rebellion is a crime that will certainly bring with it condign punishment, and we shall have no more of it. Any plan of reconstruction that does not accomplish this end—security for the future—must prove a miserable abortion.

IN the House of Representatives, on Monday, Gen. BUTLER offered a preamble and resolution to appoint a committee to fully investigate the facts and circumstances connected with the assassination of President Lincoln, and empowering the committee to report a bill granting amnesty to any persons connected with the assassination conspiracy, not already put on trial for the same, who can bring to light evidence concerning the conspiracy. The introduction of the resolution produced a sensation, but after some little skirmishing and opposition by the Democratic members, it was adopted.

CONGRESS—ADJOURNED SESSION.

The promptness with which the Republican members of Congress reported, at the opening of the adjourned session on Wednesday last, indicates the temper of the people, (whom the members represent and whose views they reflect,) in the present national crisis. When Congress adjourned in the spring, it was understood that there would be no session in July, unless some unexpected difficulties in the work of reconstruction should arise, imperatively requiring additional legislation. The Sherman-Military Bill, it was thought, would accomplish everything necessary to bring the South to terms. For a while all went well, under the efficient administration of the law by General SHERIDAN, SICKLES, POPE, and the other Commanders of the Southern military districts. Leading citizens of the South, Rebel and Union, were rapidly giving in their adhesion to the terms prescribed by Congress, while contumacious State and Municipal officials like WELLS, WITHERS and MONROE, were promptly displaced and loyal men substituted. Everything gave promise of an early adjustment of our national difficulties, and a meeting of Congress in July was thought unnecessary. Attorney General STRANSBERRY, however, in his new role of judicial interpreter of Congressional enactments, a few weeks ago undertook to arrest the work of re-construction, in a lengthy legal opinion, by which the Sherman bill was emasculated of its essential vitality. This was followed by official instructions from the President, endorsing the Attorney General's opinions, and requiring the military commanders to conform to them. The tocsin of alarm was immediately sounded by the loyal sentiment of the land, and a July session demanded. Senators and Representatives were at once recalled from summer tours, and when the roll was called on Wednesday last, 34 Senators and 120 members of the House responded to their names.

Both Houses immediately proceeded to work—the Senate instructing its Judiciary Committee to report such additional legislation as is required to complete the work of re-construction, while the House raised a special committee, of which Mr. STEVENS is chairman, to whom the subject was referred. It was also agreed to confine the legislation at this session to matters connected with the re-construction problem.

The House passed resolutions of thanks to Gens. SHERIDAN, SICKLES, POPE and SCHOFIELD, thus endorsing their administration, the President and Attorney General to the contrary, notwithstanding—every Republican member voting for the Resolutions, and every Democrat against them.

Letters from Washington represent that the Republican members are thoroughly united in their determination to stand by the Sherman bill and require its provisions to be enforced. If necessary, the control of the commanders of the Southern military districts will be taken from the President, and all the Southern State and Municipal governments made subordinate to these commanders, by enactments so distinct in terms that neither President or Cabinet will be at loss to understand them. This is what the country wants, and the loyal voters of the Republic expect their representatives to meet the issue boldly and squarely.

On Monday, Mr. STEVENS, from the House Committee, introduced a Bill supplementary to the Reconstruction laws of last session. It sets aside the Rebel State Governments, and puts them under complete subjection to the military authority. The acts already performed by the military commanders are approved, and their authority henceforth is supreme in the Rebel States until the work of Reconstruction is completed, subject only to Congress. It regulates the matter of registration and makes the Boards of Registers the judges of the qualifications of all persons seeking to register, instead of the parties themselves. It provides against the removal of the military commanders, except by and with the advice and consent of the Senate. And, finally, it leaves the President out in the cold, so far as having anything to do with Reconstruction is concerned.

It the Senate, the Judiciary Committee also submitted a bill, differing from the House bill mainly in leaving the President's power over the military commanders untouched.

"MAJ. GEN. RAWLINS, Gen. GRANT's Chief of Staff, has been lecturing in Galena, the home of GRANT, giving a history of the Rebellion and sketching at length the acts of the Government since its surrender, showing that the President has pursued an eminently pacificatory course. He is supposed to reflect the views of Gen. GRANT, and his ideas do not suit the Radicals."

WE find the above extract going the rounds of the copperhead press. It is by such perversions of facts and history that Democratic journals seek to bind their party to the continued support of a policy which finds countenance only with Rebels and Rebel sympathisers. The truth is that Gen. RAWLINGS, GRANT's Chief of Staff, in his speech at Galena, so far from endorsing PRESIDENT JOHNSON's policy, squarely denounced that policy as the great obstruction in the way of reconstruction. He went further and took decided ground in favor of the Congressional measures of re-construction, opposed the views which have recently been put forth against these measures, charged the Democratic party for the responsibility of the late rebellion, and maintained that the work of sustaining the government must necessarily be performed by the Republican party.

THE trial of SURRATT, for participation in the assassination of President LINCOLN, is still in progress at Washington. Dr. MCMILLAN, the surgeon of the vessel on which SURRATT escaped to Europe, and St. MARIE, the Papal Zouave, who recognized SURRATT at Rome, testified last week. Both witnesses detailed conversations with the defendant, in which he admitted and boasted of his participation in the assassination conspiracy, saying to the latter that he left Washington on the night or morning after the assassination. Besides these, two additional witnesses testified to SURRATT's presence in Washington on the 14th of April. CHARLES WOOD, a barber, testified that he shaved both BOOTH and SURRATT on the afternoon of that day. The prosecution is apparently making out a conclusive case against the prisoner.

The prosecution closed its evidence in chief on Saturday. Mr. BRADLY opened for the defence, announcing their purpose to prove an alibi, and show that SURRATT was not in Washington on the 14th of April, and had nothing to do with the assassination conspiracy. How this is to be done in the face of the positive testimony of the prosecution, remains to be seen.

OUR PLATFORM.

The Republican Press of the State give a most cordial endorsement of the admirable series of Resolutions adopted by the recent Republican State Convention, and which we published in full last week. The Philadelphia Press says the platform, "in its strong, vigorous language and earnest loyalty, reflecting the devotion and patriotism of the party, augurs success. In contrast with the Harrisburg abortion it is the living, breathing man, pulsating with life and energy, aside of a cold corpse. It tells of a party fighting for an end, and that end their country, and not of a clique of ruined and disheartened politicians. Positive and clear in all its positions, and its words fairly ringing, it is a power in itself. Our platform will carry a candidate; the Democratic resolutions will sink one. That is the difference."

The resolutions, it will be remembered, open with one demanding security against future rebellion and civil war. The second condemns the administration of ANDREW JOHNSON because he has been faithless to his trust in falling and not even trying to gather up and fix in the organic and statute law of the land the great principles which the war has settled. The third declares that reconstruction must be so well completed that traitors driven from the field shall not find refuge in the courts, and that the laws shall not be tortured in the interest of treason. The fourth endorses unreservedly the reconstruction measures of the Thirty-ninth and Fortieth Congresses. The fifth tenders the sympathies and thanks of the State to Major Generals PHIL SHERIDAN and DANIEL E. SICKLES. The sixth censures President JOHNSON for his disloyal use of the pardoning power against the Union. The seventh, and it is for the day the most important, declares that, warned by past misfortunes, it is demanded that the Supreme Court of the State be placed in harmony with the political opinions of a majority of the people, to the end that the court may never again, by unjust decisions, seek to set aside laws vital to the nation, nor imperil the safety of the public securities, nor impair the operation of the bounty, pension, and tax laws which were required for the public defence.—Democratic partisanship already has secured decisions from the bench against our legal-tenders—against the draft—against the right of the Government to protect itself. This we do not intend shall happen again. Democratic partisanship on the bench is what we are called upon to protect the State from this year, and the discussion of its history will be the key-note of the campaign.—The eighth declares, out and out, in honorable contrast to the Harrisburg equivocation, in favor of a protective tariff that shall foster Pennsylvania industry. The ninth unhesitatingly calls for a free railroad law. The tenth is complimentary to Gov. JOHN W. GEARY. The eleventh is an emphatic and hearty expression of the continued gratitude of the people to the soldiers and sailors of the war for the suppression of rebellion, and condemns the tardy action of the Treasury department in executing the bounty laws of 1866.

"With our colors flying," continues the Press, "confident of success, and strong in the consciousness of a good cause, we go into the campaign. The Williamsport platform, nothing more and nothing less, is the official announcement of the issues on which we fight this fall. They are so irrefutable and impregnable that, instead of attacking them, the Democracy will more likely set up men of straw of their own and fight them. This method of guerilla warfare will not likely delude the reading voters of this State. No side issues will be allowed to obscure the plain, distinct enunciation of our great principles, put forth at Williamsport."

The N. Y. Tribune says of the platform—"The Republican State Convention which met at Williamsport has given full proof that the party in Pennsylvania has not forsaken those principles which governed its action from 1860 to the end of the war. Pennsylvania is thoroughly Radical, and her radicalism means over 300,000 men sent to the war, and the utter defeat of Copperheadism at every general election."

THE ROMAN CELEBRATION.

ROME, June 30.—The religious ceremonies in celebration of the eighteen hundredth anniversary of St. Peter's martyrdom, and in reverence of St. Paul and the canonization of twenty-five Dutch, French and Spanish martyrs, who died in Japan, as saints, was one of the most gorgeous religious ceremonies witnessed in the world since the days of King Solomon. The observances were commenced yesterday evening with a general illumination of the city of Rome. St. Peter's shone like a great church on fire. At 7 o'clock this morning there was a grand procession of prelates, priests, monks, and soldiers from the Vatican to Saint Peter's. His Holiness, the Pope, was carried on his throne. St. Peter's was most magnificently decorated with cloths of gold, silver tapestries, paintings and two hundred thousand yards of crimson silk. The building was lighted with many millions of wax candles. There were one hundred thousand people inside its walls, including the ex-King of Naples, the foreign Ministry, five hundred cardinals, archbishops and bishops, and many thousands of clergyman, priests, friars and monks.

There were even nuns and soldiers from almost every country in the world present, and the assembled multitude made up a most brilliant congregation. Pope Pius the Ninth celebrated the Gregorian mass in Latin and Greek. There were two interruptions to the ceremony. The curtains of one of the windows of the church caught fire at one moment, but they were speedily torn down by the guard, and no damaged occurred. After this a man who had become crazy from excitement produced by the pomp and glitter of lights, cut his throat, and died just under the bronze statue of St. Peter. There was no confusion in consequence. His body was quickly removed outside. The Pope at once proceeded to reconsecrate the church stained with the blood of the suicide, and then proceeded with the service at the altar. Lists composed extra music for the grand Mass, and a choir, placed on the dome of St. Peter's, made the responses, the cannon of Castle San Angelo thundering forth the accompaniment instead of the organs.

The pope's voice during the celebration was clear and very sweet, and heard all over the church. It was a most sublime scene when at the elevation of the Host the prelates, priests and nobles, peasantry and soldiers, who were spectators, knelt to earth to do reverence to the Higher than the Highest, and who had become for men Lowlier than the Lowliest of all those present.

☞ The Lancaster papers announce the death of Dr. F. A. MUHLENBURG, in the 73rd year of his age, one of the oldest and most respected citizens of that city. He was the father of Prof. F. A. MUHLENBURG, of this place.

COMPLIMENTARY.

We are under obligations to our brethren of the PRESS for the many kind words of encouragement and flattering notices which the consolidation of the Star and Sentinel has drawn forth. We annex a few extracts from the large number lying on our table, simply that our readers may see what is said of the new paper abroad—omitting much that our modesty will not permit us to republish. We are well aware that for these compliments we are largely indebted to the good nature of our editorial brethren, but it shall be our aim to merit these good opinions by doing our best to publish a first-class paper.

A CAPITAL COUNTRY NEWSPAPER.—One of the most attractive, interesting, and ably conducted weekly newspapers, printed in Pennsylvania, is the Gettysburg STAR AND SENTINEL. It has recently passed into the hands of ROBERT G. HARPER, Esq., Hon. EDWARD M'PHERSON, Clerk of the popular branch of Congress, and DAVID A. BUEHLER, Esq., a leading member of the Adams county bar.—With such a rare combination of editorial tact and talent, it could scarcely fail of being a first-class newspaper, as it really is.—Lutheran Observer.

WE, by some unaccountable oversight, neglected to notice the consolidation, several weeks ago, of the two Republican papers of Adams county, under the title of the Star and Sentinel. It comes to us now very much improved in size and appearance, being a large eight column paper, the largest in the Congressional district. We predict for it under the new regime a successful career, and expect to see it do yeoman's service for the Republican cause in the Sixteenth District.—Bedford Inquirer.

THE new paper starts on its brilliant career with more than 2,000 good, substantial subscribers, thus showing a popularity very rarely surpassed in any part of the interior of the State. We wish the consolidated journal—the Star and Sentinel—a long, noble and brilliant career, and its able editors every token of approval and prosperity.

Predicting for it a popularity and influence second to no weekly journal issued in our State, we welcome it as a new STAR AND SENTINEL in the galaxy of American periodicals.—Philadelphia Lutheran.

THE GETTYSBURG STAR.—The death of J. T. McIlhenny, editor and proprietor of this excellent paper, has made a change in its management necessary. It has been consolidated with the Sentinel, and will hereafter be published under the title of the Star and Sentinel. R. G. Harper, Esq., the veteran editor of the Sentinel, together with Hon. Edward McPherson and D. A. Buehler, Esq., will conduct the paper, under the firm of Harper, McPherson & Buehler. This is a strong team, and they will make a most valuable, interesting and influential paper.—Philadelphia Bulletin.

WITH such an efficient editorial corps, the "Star and Sentinel," ought, and no doubt will be, one of the leading journals of the State.—All the gentlemen connected with the new establishment, are men of experience, talent and ability, and the business in which they are engaged being perfectly familiar to them all, it would seem that success must be a foregone conclusion. We tender the new firm our hearty and earnest congratulations, and wish the new journal every success.—True Democrat, York.

THE two Republican papers of Gettysburg, the "Star" and "Sentinel" have been united. That veteran Journalist, R. G. HARPER, Esq. of the Sentinel who for more than half a century has so ably and unceasingly combatted the heresies of the miscalled Democracy, continues at the head of the editorial staff of the consolidated papers. Hon. Edward McPherson, who has had much experience as a Journalist, and D. A. Buehler, Esq., a prominent member of the bar, and a well tried Republican leader, complete an editorial corps, that will unquestionably make the "Star and Sentinel" one of the ablest country papers in the State.—Somerset Herald.

THE Adams Sentinel, whose age is coeval with the century, and whose editor is the Nestor of the Pennsylvania Press, having had charge of the paper for more than fifty years, has been united to the Gettysburg Star, left headless by the death of its late editor, Mr. MCILHENNY, and the two establishments,

"Like kindred drops, have mingled into one."

Mr. HARPER, of the Sentinel, continues his association with the consolidated concern, having associated with him Hon. EDWARD MCPHERSON and D. A. BUEHLER, Esq., both of whom have had large editorial experience, and are writers of great ability, thoroughly acquainted with the public affairs of the country, and earnestly devoted, like their senior, to the cause of Loyalty and Freedom. The new paper will bear the title of "The Star and Sentinel," and as "in union there is strength," we may hope, as we cordially wish for it, great prosperity and a powerful influence upon the political state of Adams county.—York Republican.

THE Adams Sentinel and the Gettysburg Star have been consolidated, and will be published hereafter under the title of The Star and Sentinel, with R. G. HARPER, EDWARD MCPHERSON, and DAVID A. BUEHLER as editors and proprietors. This is an able editorial corps, and under their management the paper will do much good in the Republican cause. We wish them success.—Hunting Journal.

THE Gettysburg (Pa.,) Star and Sentinel have been consolidated, and now form one journal under the editorial control of Hon. Edward McPherson, Clerk of the House of Representatives; David A. Buehler and Robert G. Harper, Esq'rs. The editorial career of the latter gentleman dates back more than twenty-five years, during which period the Sentinel has been conducted with marked ability and success. Mr. McPherson is a writer of enlarged experience and reputation, and his connection with the Star and Sentinel, in company with Mr. Buehler, who is also a writer of talent and energy, will give that journal a character and importance which but few of its cotemporaries possess.—Frederick Examiner.

THE Adams Sentinel and the Gettysburg Star have been consolidated, and will be published hereafter under the title of The Star and Sentinel, with Robert G. Harper, Edward McPherson and David A. Buehler as editors and proprietors. This will make an excellent team, and a first-class paper may be expected.—Carlisle Herald.

THE two Republican papers of Gettysburg have been consolidated under the ownership and management of Hon. Edward McPherson, Robert G. Harper and D. A. Buehler, with the title of Star and Sentinel. This is a heavy team, and we have no doubt that the consolidation will prove advantageous to all parties concerned.—Lancaster Inquirer.

WE noticed last week the union of the two Republican papers at Gettysburg—the Star and the Sentinel. R. G. Harper, Esq., the veteran editor of the old Sentinel, is at the head of the editorial corps, Hon. Edward McPherson and D. A. Buehler, Esq., being the others. This is a strong array of talent, and all have had considerable journalistic experience. We predict for the paper a political reputation and success, enjoyed by few others outside the large cities. Welcome bright "Star" and vigilant "Sentinel."—Fulton Republican.

An arrival at New Orleans brings intelligence that Santa Anna was shot on the 25th ult., by order of the Juarez Government.—Vera Cruz surrendered without bloodshed to the Liberals on the 27th ult., and the captured soldiers—the Foreign Legion—were sent to Mobile. Santa Anna's mission to Mexico was for the purpose of placing himself at the head of the Government.

ROCHESTER, July 5.—During the performance at the Circus of Messrs. Thayer & Noyes, last evening, Elias White, the Lion King, entered the cage of ferocious lions. One of the males attacked him, felling him to the floor of the den, and fastening his jaws upon his shoulder, inflicting serious wounds. The circus men went to his rescue with iron bars, and finally succeeded in getting White away from the enraged animal.

THE CROPS ABROAD.—The London Mercantile Gazette surveys the various grain countries of Europe, to ascertain the prospect of future supplies. In England all looks well, and no deficiency is apprehended. In Paris the stock of flour is the largest ever held, amounting to 800,000 cwt. Considerable shipments are making to England direct from France, but the United Kingdom is mainly dependent on the Black sea ports.

A Kentucky correspondent of the Cincinnati Gazette has such a poor opinion of the loyalty of that State that he says, "Jefferson Davis, as a candidate for President to-day, would carry Kentucky over even such a mild Radical as U. S. Grant, by fifty thousand majority; and John C. Breckinridge, in a like contest, would beat the hero of Nashville and other hard fought fields—General George H. Thomas—by even a greater majority."

NEW ORLEANS, July 3.—An issue between the displaced officials of the city of New Orleans and General Sheridan has been made to-day in the refusal of the Comptroller of the city to pay the salaries of municipal officers appointed by Governor Flanders, the appointee of the military authorities. The refusal is based upon Attorney General Stansbery's opinion.

THE authorities of Baltimore city made extensive arrangements for the reception of Mr. STEVENS on his way to Washington, who had promised to stop in Baltimore over night.—The Mayor and Councils, with an immense concourse of citizens, assembled at the depot, to do honor to the distinguished statesman, but, in consequence of his feeble health he was compelled to decline the ovation, passing through the city in a special car.

THE EXECUTION OF MAXIMILIAN.—Maximilian's execution is now placed beyond doubt, being confirmed by the official report of Gen. Escobedo, the Commander-in-chief of the Mexican army, and other sources. Miramon and Mejia were executed at the same time.—The three were condemned on the 14th of June; the sentence was confirmed at Escobedo's headquarters on the 15th, and the 16th was designated as the day of execution. Three days of grace were finally granted, after the first hour fixed had passed, to permit Maximilian to settle up his worldly affairs, and on the 19th the triple execution took place. The Emperor was shot with his face to the front, the two Mexicans in the back. Maximilian's last words were "Poor Carlotta." Among his papers was found a will designating Louis La Cunza and Marquez as regents of the empire in the event of his death. The Prussian Minister had protested against the execution, but President Juarez returned answer that Maximilian could not be pardoned consistently with the great considerations of justice and the necessity of insuring the future peace of the country. When the execution had taken place the Russian and British Ministers both made preparations for leaving the country.—Vera Cruz dates to the 21st instant say that Santa Anna is still a prisoner at Campeachy. Important documents had been found upon his person, and he was under close surveillance.

The execution of Maximilian causes great indignation in England and on the Continent. The English Government postponed the grand review in Hyde Park on account of the Archduke's death, and all the Courts of Europe have gone into mourning.

THE FOURTH.—No preparations having been made for a celebration of the 4th in this place, numerous Pic-Nics were the order of the day. The visiting military, however, made up, in some degree, the lack of home preparations, and our streets on the morning of the 4th presented an animated appearance. On Wednesday, a detachment of the New York 14th, numbering about 50 men under command of Major MCNIEL, accompanied by Mayor BOOTH, of Brooklyn, and representatives of the City Council, and escorted by the "Ziegle Guards," of York, under command of Capt. IVERY, reached Gettysburg in the evening train. They were met at the depot by a committee of citizens, and marched to the Court-house, where they were presented to the Burgess, R. G. MCCREARY, Esq., by Col. C. H. BUEHLER, Chairman of the Committee. Mr. M'CREARY, in a few pertinent remarks, on behalf of the citizens, extended to the visitors a cordial welcome to the town, which had been immortalized by the heroism of the defenders of the Union in the struggle of July, 1863,—a struggle in which the 14th New York had borne an honorable part. Mayor BOOTH replied, returning thanks for the cordial welcome, and paying a glowing tribute to the 14th, of whom the city of Brooklyn justly felt proud. After cheers for the visitors, and a response "with a tiger" on their part, the companies marched to their respective quarters.

The Fourth was ushered in with firing of cannon, ringing of bells, and the national airs by the Gettysburg Cornet Band, played in capital style. After breakfast, the military companies paraded the principal streets, eliciting a few their soldierly bearing and splendid appearance, remarks of admiration on all sides. The Brooklyn Band, too, added greatly to the attractions of the occasion.

After being dismissed, the soldiers repaired to different points on the battle-field, and thus spent most of the day, the Brooklyn boys being specially interested, as many of them had participated in the fight.

The visiting military, officers and privates, made a favorable impression in the community, by reason of their soldierly appearance and gentlemanly deportment. The Brooklyn veterans, in addition to a handsome silk regimental banner, on which were emblazoned the names of the battles in which the regiment had participated, carried with them their battle flags, torn, stained, and disfigured, showing the marks of hard service—and the special pride of the corps. The regiment participated, with honorable distinction, in some of the hardest fought battles of the war, including Cedar Mountain, Rappahannock Station, Sulphur Springs, Thoroughfare Gap, Bull Run, Chantilly, South Mountain, Antietam, Fredericksburg, Fitzhugh Lee House, Chancellorsville, Gettysburg, Mine Run, Wilderness, Laurel Hill, Spottsylvania, Guines Station, Tolapotama, North Anna, Bethesda Church, Cold Harbor, White Oak Swamp, Petersburg, Jerusalem Plank Road, Weldon Railroad, Poplar Springs, Reams' Station, Hatcher's Run.

We noticed several reporters in the party—Mr. WILCOX, of the Brooklyn "Union," and Mr. MALLISON, of the "Eagle."

LAMENTABLE ACCIDENT.—A terrible accident occurred here on the morning of the 4th, resulting in the loss of the left arm of Mr. JOHN ATWELL, by the premature discharge of a cannon. He was engaged with several other young men in firing a salute at an early hour on Cemetery Hill, and while Mr. ATWELL was in the act of ramming down a charge, the explosion took place, throwing him some eighteen feet from the gun. When picked up, it was found that his left hand was blown off, his face and neck burned with powder, and otherwise badly bruised. He was immediately taken to the residence of Mr. JACOB SHEADS, where the arm was amputated above the elbow by Dr. HUBER, assisted by Drs. O'NEAL and HORNER. We are glad to learn that, under careful nursing, Mr. ATWELL is doing well, and will in all probability recover from his injuries, except the loss of his left arm. The cause of the premature discharge of the cannon, remains a mystery. It was in careful hands, being in charge of young men who had served in the army, and who had been drilling for several days previously in the use of the gun, to guard against the possibility of accident.

Mr. ATWELL is a marble-cutter by trade, in the employ of Mr. CANNON, and a young man of exemplary character, enjoying the confidence and sympathy of the community. He is a member of Gen. Reynolds Lodge of Good Templars, and also of Gettys Lodge of Odd Fellows.

"YOUNG AMERICA" AND THE FOURTH.—JOHN ADAMS, of Revolutionary fame, advised that the declaration of American Independance be celebrated in all time to come by bon-fires, ringing of bells and firing of cannon, as a perpetual reminder of the great event. For years "Young America" has contributed their share to the general observance of this very proper recommendation, by firing crackers, rockets, &c., and on each returning 4th of July the patriotism of our juvenile population has found free vent in these harmless amusements. This year, however, our "City Fathers,"—grown wiser, if not more patriotic, than their predecessors—came to the conclusion that these ebullitions of youthful patriotism must be dispensed with, and a ban was accordingly placed upon the sale and use of fireworks—much to the disgust of "Young America," with whom "fourth of July" and "fire-crackers" have become correlative terms, and who, as usual, for long weeks had been saving up their pennies to give full honor to the day. We believe some old Borough Ordinance, forbidding the sale and use of fire-works in the borough limits, is at the bottom of this ill-judged action of our authorities. All we have to say is, that if this Ordinance covers the 4th of July, the sooner it is modified the better. In crowded cities, and in the midst of inflammable structures, the indiscriminate firing of crackers, &c., may be imprudent; but in such case the authorities supply their place by creditable public displays. In Gettysburg, the disappointment to "Young America" was not justified by either reason. On the recurrence of another 4th, we hope to see their rights fully restored.

SUNSTROKE.—Warm weather and hot suns are now upon us, and we may expect more or less of COUP DE SOLEIL, or sunstroke, to follow. A person whose uncovered head is exposed to the rays of a vertical sun is not unfrequently attacked with a sort of fit, which sometimes bears a resemblance to apoplexy, but at other times is no more than an ordinary swoon. The proper remedy for an attack of this kind during the primary fit is to pour cold water on the head. This is the plan pursued by the natives of India, who are particularly exposed to the affection in question. It is said that sunstroke may be avoided by wearing a handkerchief or cloth soaked in cold water in one's hat while exposed to the direct rays of the sun.

☞ Hon. J. H. EWING, Esq., an eminent lawyer of Baltimore, goes to Europe in September for the purpose of investigating the GROVE Estate. It will be remembered that a legacy of $75,000,000 in Germany is due the GROVE heirs in this country, a portion of whom are said to reside in this county.

☞ The Agricultural Fairs in York and Cumberland will be held the week succeeding that of Adams county—the latter during the last week of September, the former during the first week in October.

ADAMS COUNTY OFFICERS.—The following list of commissioned officers from Adams county, in the volunteer service of the United States during the rebellion, we have compiled from the last report of Adjutant General Russell and other sources.—A number of those named have been promoted by brevet, and also served in several organizations, but we give the regiment in which they held the highest rank at the time of their discharge:

The Corner Stone of the new Presbyterian church in Mercersburg, will be laid on Saturday next.

Frederick.

The Secretary of the Treasury has appointed Lieut. Noble H. Creager, of Frederick city, General Inspector of Distilled Spirits for the Fourth Congressional District of Maryland.

The Frederick (Maryland) Republican says: The apprehensions that have been felt for some time in regard to the present harvest have now happily vanished, and prospects have given way to reality. The wheat crop will surpass, both in quality and amount, any that we have had for a number of years. We are reliably informed that there never was a larger amount sown in Western Maryland, nor a yield that was more ample. The corn, which has been rather backward, is now coming forward rapidly, and bids fair to make a full crop. We are glad to chronicle a fact which will have a wholesome effect upon both the business and finances of the country.

Lancaster.

Henry Staymaker, while engaged in repairing the railroad track near Leaman Place, on the 2nd inst., was struck by the locomotive of a freight train, and was so severely injured that he died a short time after the accident.

On Thursday night, a young man named John B. Stewart, boarding at Funk's hotel, Lancaster, got up in his sleep and sprang from a third story window. His fall was luckily broken by the limbs of a tree in front of the building, and his injuries were not serious.

On the 29th ult., Mr. Abraham Kauffman, a respectable citizen of Manor township, was overcome by heat in a hay-field, and fell speechless, dying in a few minutes.

York.

A Drum Corps has been organized in Hanover—Milton Bair, Fife-major; Howard Stahl, Drum-major; and Wm. Britcher, Ensign.

A destructive hailstorm passed over parts of York county on Wednesday last, damaging the crops more or less. Some sheep were killed.

Fearful Lightning Stroke.—Last Thursday afternoon, a large crowd had assembled in the Fair Ground at Buffalo. N. Y., when a sharp thunder storm suddenly came up. The rain began to fall, and the crowd sought refuge from its effects in the exhibition sheds.—A flash of lightning took place, accompanied by a loud peal of thunder, and instantly an awful spectacle was presented. The lightning struck one of the sheds which contained men, women and horses. About a hundred persons were paralysed in an instant, falling on their faces, and as many as fifty were rendered insensible for five or ten minutes, while about a dozen were quite seriously burned.—Two horses were killed on the spot. An old gentleman named John Gardenier, and two or three others, are not expected to recover.—The lightning struck a post in the centre of the shed, against which Henry Tilton, the landlord of the West Falls Hotel, was leaning, and to which a horse was attached by a chain halter. The horse was killed instantly, while Mr. Tilton escaped by being dazed and knocked down.

A young lady named Miss Nellie Cassey, who wore a white and black checked dress, was quite seriously injured, and her dress was fairly scorched, but did not take fire. Another woman was struck on the shoulder, the fluid passing down her side, raising a perfect blister in its course. A man from Otto was hit on the right side of the head, and on his recovery the mark was found to commence at the right eye, which was swelled like a puff ball, and could be plainly traced down the neck, across the chest and off the left arm.—The most fearful consternation existed among the people until it was discovered how light the injuries were that had been inflicted, and the excitement was most intense.

Rothermel has nearly finished his sketch of the "Battle of Gettysburg," ordered by the Legislature for the State Capitol.

PERUVIAN SYRUP.
A PROTECTED SOLUTION OF THE PROTOXIDE OF IRON, supplies the blood with its LIFE ELEMENT, IRON, giving strength, vigor and new life to the whole system.

If the thousands who are suffering from Dyspepsia, Debility, Female Weakness, &c., would but test the virtues of the Peruvian Syrup, the effect would not only astonish themselves but would please all their friends; for instead of feeling cross, "all gone" and miserable, they would be cheerful, vigorous and active.

I have tried the Peruvian Syrup, and the result fully sustains your prediction. It has made a new man of me infused into my system new vigor and energy; I am no longer tremulous and debilitated, as when you last saw me, but stronger, heartier, and with larger capacity for labor, mental and physical, than at any time during the last five years."

Thousands have been changed by the use of this remedy from weak, sickly, suffering creatures, to strong, healthy, and happy men and women; and invalids cannot reasonably hesitate to give it a trial.

The genuine has "Peruvian Syrup" blown in the glass. A 32 page pamphlet will be sent free.

A YOUNG LADY

returning to her country home, after a sojourn of a few months in the City, was hardly recognized by her friends. In place of a coarse, rustic, flushed face, she had a soft ruby complexion of almost marble smoothness, and instead of twenty-three she really appeared but eighteen. Upon inquiry as to the cause of so great a change, she plainly told them that she used the CIRCASSIAN BALM and considered it an invaluable acquisition and Lady's toilet. By its use any Lady or Gentleman can improve their personal appearance an hundred fold. It is simple in its combination, as Nature herself is simple, and is surpassed in its efficacy in drawing impurities from, also beautifying, cleansing and beautifying the skin and complexion, by its direct action on the cuticle it draws from it ion. By its direct action on the cuticle it draws from it ion. By its direct action on the cuticle it draws from it all its impurities, kindly heating the same, and leaving the surface as Nature intended it should be, clear, soft smooth and beautiful. "These exercises were composed to be used simultaneously with his system, "The Art of Singing," or with any other method for the cultivation of the voice, and will be found invaluable in an educational point of view, as they tend to enlarge the intelligence and the appreciation, and at the same time form the taste of the pupil. They must be studied carefully with reference to the innumerable marks of expression and forms of ornamentation. Upon the minute accuracy with which these are accomplished depends the actual sterling advancement of the pupil; any evasion or slighting in these respects is time and effort literally wasted, while on the other hand, a close and patient investigation and a faithful and careful execution of them, will give unexpected power and facility, and open to the student the true and resources of the whole grand artistic province that is brilliant and profound effects.—Watson's Art Journal.

THE PREMIUM

MOWER AND REAPER,

DODGES HARVESTER.

AWARDED the Special Diploma and Grand Medal of Honor as the best combined Mower Hand-Raking Reaper and Self-Raking Reaper—on exhibition at the great fair of the St. Louis Agricultural and Mechanical Association October 8th, 1866.

OHIO AND BUCKEYE PATENTS

At the great trial of Reapers and Mowers at Auburn N. Y., in July last by the New York State Agricultural Society, this Machine was awarded the preference over all others in Class No 5. This class was the most important of any as it embraced Mowing and Hand or Self-Raking Reaper in the same Machine.

This Machine has been awarded Medals and first Premiums by the Pennsylvania and Iowa State Fairs, and by hundreds of County Fairs in all parts of the country.—This Machine took the first Premium at the Adams County Agricultural Fair held at Bendersville, September 1866. Also,

BALL'S OHIO AND RUSSEL'S SCREW POWER,

Both first-class Machines, having sold a number of these Machines in the last three years. They have given general satisfaction wherever used. We ask farmers before buying a machine to call and examine these machines before purchasing elsewhere, as they will be able to make a better selections. We could produce quite a number of certificates from some of our best Farmers in the County, but deem it unnecessary, as we warrant these machines to give satisfaction with a fair trial, or no sale. Insured for one season.

Extras always kept on hand. We have made arrangements to have repairing done when needed at any time and on moderate terms.

With the above we have for sale a number of valuable farming Implements.

SULKY CORN PLOUGH

Can be used for ploughing and cultivating corn—finishing one row at a time. Can also be used for loosening up corn ground or putting in seeding—by raising the front shovels it can be used for marking out corn ground —marking two rows at a time. A Complanter can also be attached, planting 2 rows at a time.

CORN CRUSHERS

For crushing corn in the ear or shelled.

THE NATIONAL REAPERS AND MOWERS.

HOFFHEIN'S PATENTS.

THE No. 1 Machine has Two Driving Wheels. Hings Joint and Folding Bar, making it very convenient to move from one place to another: it very simple in its construction, extremely light draught, and durable; cuts 4 feet 10 inches in grass and 5 feet 2 inches in grain; is a Self-Raker and Side-Delivery, and is capable of cutting a whole field without binding a sheaf, and does it in a most satisfactory work.

This Machine can also be used as a Hand Machine without injuring its qualities as a Reaper. The Machine is warranted to cut grass or grain as any Single Mower that cuts the same width. It is a strong two-horse Machine—three or four can be used, if required, in hilly ground.

GREAT IMPROVEMENTS have been made for the coming season.

The Machine is also perfectly balanced, no weight on the horses' necks in Mowing or Reaping.

Always remember that at the Mowing trial last Summer in Gettysburg, in competition with 8 other leading Machines, the above-named Machine was awarded the First Premium. This way if you want the best Machine.

No. 2 is a light two-horse Machine, and is fully constructed, cutting on the right-hand side; and in front of Driving Wheels, is a Self-Raker and Side Delivery.—The difference in the width of cut is 6 inches.

The shifting lever and the raising and lowering levers are both at the driver's right side, and with his right foot upon a pedal and his left upon a foot step, he has the power and control of the whole machine, he can raise or lower the platform from three to fourteen inches, can throw the machine out of gear, and can adjust the cut so as to make the sheaves large or small, and all this at the same time and without retarding the motion or speed of the machine.

Keep it before the people that at a fair mowing trial 7 different leading Machines were present at Dillsburg, York. co., last Summer and the National Machine was awarded the first premium.

SHIREMAN'S

NATIONAL SELF-DISCHARGING STEEL SPRING TOOTH

Horse Rake!

THIS Rake is an Independent Steel Spring Tooth Rake, and has proven itself to be the most perfect HORSE RAKE now in use. With this Rake the horse does all the work, both the Raking and Discharging, by the Driver moving a lever a few inches, which throws it into gear, and as the horse moves forward, it takes the teeth and discharges the load, and then shifts out of gear itself, the teeth dropping down ready to rake again. By this operation it is so easily understood that the Raker has hardly any work to do.

Important improvements have been made of late, making it very simple and durable in its construction. Thousands of them have been sold in the few last years and given the best kind of satisfaction.

Circulars giving a fuller description of these Machines can be had by applying to the Agent.

BRINKERHOEF'S CORN SHELLER, SEPARATOR AND CLEANER.

The undersigned would inform the Agricultural public that he has purchased from the Patentee of this extraordinary machine, the Patent Right for the States of Pennsylvania and Maryland.

Brinkerhoff's Corn Sheller, Separator and Cleaner, is pronounced the best machine of the kind in this country. And in proof, it may be mentioned that the "Advisory Committee appointed to select Implements for exhibition at the Universal Exposition in Paris, in 1867, have selected this Sheller as the best in America," and at the request of J. C. Derby, U. S. Agent, a machine has been shipped to Paris for exhibition. One important feature in this machine is that it will shell ears large, small or crooked, perfectly clean, and separate the cob and chaff from the Corn ready for market.

The fact may also be stated that at the great trial of Agricultural Implements, at Auburn, N. Y., in July last, under the auspices of the New York State Agricultural Society, the Brinkerhoff Corn Sheller, Separator and Cleaner was reported by one of the most competent Committees as the best Corn Sheller out. They say, "We have carefully examined and thoroughly tested this machine, and have no hesitation in pronouncing it the best Corn Sheller we ever saw." The report is signed by such men as John Stanton Gould, President N. Y. State Agricultural Society; B. P. Johnson, Secretary to same; Solon Robinson, Agricultural Editor N. Y. Tribune; S. Edward Todd, Agricultural Editor N. Y. Times.

"Among all the Hand Corn Shellers made in New York and Albany—and one single firm manufacturers more than 10,000 annually—not one can enter the circle with the Sheller just invented by J. Brinkerhoff, Auburn, New York. It shells, separates and cleanses, rapidly and easily, at one operation, as fast as the ears can be put in the hopper."

The undersigned is now prepared to dispose of COUNTY RIGHTS. He will have SHELLERS ready for sale in the course of a month's time.

THE HOWE MACHINE CO.'S

SEWING MACHINES,

699 BROADWAY, NEW YORK.

These World-renowned Sewing Machines were awarded the Highest Premium at the World's Fair, in London, and SIX First Premiums at the N. Y. State Fair of 1866, and are celebrated for doing the best work, using a much smaller needle for the same thread than any other machine, and by the introduction of the most approved machinery, we are now able to supply the very best machines in the world.

Those machines are made at our new and spacious Factory at Bridgeport, Conn., under the immediate supervision of the President of the Company, ELIAS HOWE, Jr., the original inventor of the Sewing Machine.

They are adapted to all kinds of Family Sewing, and to the use of Seamstresses, Dress Makers, Tailors, Manufacturers of Shirts, Collars, Skirts, Cloaks, Hantillas, Clothing, Hats, Caps, Corsets, Boots, Shoes, Harness, Saddles, Linen Goods, Umbrellas, Parasols, etc. They work equally well upon silk, linen, cotton or woolen goods with silk, cotton or linen thread. They will seam, quilt, gather, hem, fell, cord, braid, bind and perform every species of sewing, making a beautiful and perfect stitch, alike on both sides of the article sewed.

The Stitch invented by Mr. HOWE, and made on this Machine, is the most popular and durable, and all Sewing Machines are subject to the principle invented by him. Send for Circulars.

SEWING MACHINES!

THE GROVER & BAKER.

THE BEST IN USE.—These Machines have become so well known that little need be said by way of recommendation. They have taken the first premium at all the late State Fairs, and are universally conceded alone to be the BEST in use by all who have tried them. The "Grover & Baker Stitch" and the "Shuttle Stitch" are points that have been attained by no other Machines. They are the only Machines that sew and embroider with perfection. These Machines are peculiarly adapted to Family use. They are almost noiseless, never get out of tune the spool without rewinding, and are simple in their construction. They are easy to manage, and can be worked by almost any child. Every family should have one. They save labor, they save time, and they save money. And do their work better than it can be done by hand.

The undersigned having been appointed Agent for the above Machines, has established an Agency in Fairfield, Adams co., where he will have a few on hand a supply. Persons wishing to buy will please call and examine for themselves.

Needles and Thread will also be supplied.

Washing Machines.

DOTY'S CLOTHES' WASHER.

THE BEST IN MARKET.

READ THE FOLLOWING HOME TESTIMONY.

GETTYSBURG, PA., Jan. 8, 1866.

Having used DOTY'S CLOTHES' WASHER, and thoroughly tested it, we have no satisfaction in endorsing it as the best Washing Machine yet produced. It is simple in construction—is easily worked, and does its work well, without injury to clothing. An ordinary washing, requiring usually 8 to 10 hours labor at the Wash-tub, can readily be done with the aid of Doty's Washer and the Universal Clothes' Wringer, in one-third the time—economising time, labor, soap, fuel, &c.—avoiding the necessity of wash-tubs, and enabling the person working to go through with a washing without wetting themselves or the floor. It really merits all the good that can be said of it. We do not think that any family, after fairly testing it, would dispense with it.

FROM REV. L. SCOTT, BISHOP OF THE M. E. CHURCH,

January 18, 1866.

R. O. BROWNING.—Dear Sir:—We like our Machine much; could not be persuaded to do without it, and with the aid of Doty we feel that we are masters of the positions. On one occasion, the clothes were prepared, but the washer woman failed us. We were not to be defeated that way. I took hold, (which of course I should not have if we had had no machine), and in 2½ hours we put through eleven dozen pieces, many of which were sheets, and they were well done, too. We wish you great success.

This is the AMBROSIA that Ring made.

This is the Cure that lay
In the AMBROSIA that Ring made.

This is the Man who was bald and gray,
Who now has raven locks, that say
He used the Cure that lay
In the AMBROSIA that Ring made.

This is the Maiden, handsome and gay,
Who married the man once bald and gray,
Who now has raven locks, they say,
He used the AMBROSIA that Ring made.

This is the Parson, who, by the way,
Married the Maiden handsome and gay,
To the Man once bald and gray,
But who now has raven locks, they say,
Because he used the Cure that lay
In the AMBROSIA that Ring made.

This is the Bell that rings away
To rouse the people, sad and gay,
Unto the fact which here does lay—
If you would not be bald or gray,
Use the AMBROSIA that Rings made.
